Hooker Furniture has developed the Vera Cruz Collection, a whole-home lineup with traditional styling on a smaller scale. The collection includes offerings in bedroom, dining room, occasional, home office and home entertainment furniture in addition to several distinctive accent pieces and comes in a classic Rosecliff russet brown finish that highlights the natural elements of the oak, walnut and maple veneers, and poplar solids used in the collection. This smaller-scaled collection takes the best design elements of classic American traditional styling and incorporates them into a comfortable, casual look that is softened for today's modern consumer, with just a touch of formality.
